ESTES, COLORADO

Home of the Rocky Mountain National Park

KNOWN AS: HIKERS' DREAM NATIONAL PARK

Estes has a little bit of everything for everyone. The main town is filled with shops and fun food. However, there were two restaurants that stood above the rest (see below). The RNP has endless hikes as well as beautiful drives so no matter the ability/energy level of your crowd you have options. The wildlife is abundant and can even be seen walking through town! The Fairgrounds has a skate park, basketball courts, pump track for bikes as well as a dog park with an agility course!
